FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE...FREE Holiday Gift From Home Inventory Experts™ for the 2009 Holiday Season

Dallas' premier professional home inventory service, Home Inventory Experts™, is offering a FREE Holiday Decorations Inventory worth $750 to customers who purchase a Standard Home Inventory! Home robberies are on the rise, the chance of a residential fire increases drastically, and we welcome more strangers than ever into our homes during the holidays; without a professional home inventory, you are taking many risks this holiday season.

You pay your homeowners insurance, but will your insurance company pay your claim for the highest amount? Will you remember everything after it is gone? Including all gifts, holiday decorations, and extra “stuff” that comes with the holiday. If you have to file a claim in July will you remember all of your holiday decorations? It is not your insurance agent's responsibility to prove what's in your home – that's your duty! Your home inventory is the only ammunition you have to justify your claim amount!

Through December 31st, get a Holiday Decorations Inventory for FREE when you purchase a Standard Home Inventory! Call us today, right now, and let us show you why EVERY insurance department in the U.S. recommends you do your part to make sure your claim can be paid for the highest amount possible.

To schedule your FREE Holiday Decorations Inventory and Standard Home Inventory, contact Home Inventory Experts at 972-333-7022 or find out why others trust us to professionally and confidentially catalog and inventory their possessions and how much it saved them on our website at www.ProveItsYours.com
